The Organizing Committee of the 6th ICC International Commercial Mediation Competition is pleased to announce that you can now apply online.

Next year's Competition will take place from 4 – 9 February 2011 in Paris, and ICC will select about 50 teams from universities all over the world and over 100 professional mediators to participate in this unique event.

Please note that the Competition is now open to law and non-law students, provided that the role of Counsel in the mediation session is taken by a law student.

For more information about the Competition please see the attached flyer or visit: http://www.iccwbo.org/court/adr/

All teams must apply online before 15 October 2010.

To account for different school schedules around the world, ICC will select the participating universities in two rounds. The first 25 places will be attributed by the Organizing Committee between 15 and 20 July 2010. The remaining 25 places will remain open until the closing of the application process and will be attributed by the Organizing Committee between 16 – 20 October 2010.

Accordingly, the first set of 25 universities accepted will receive confirmation of their acceptance from the Organizing Committee by 20 July 2010. The second set of 25 accepted universities accepted will receive confirmation of their participation from the Organizing Committee by 20 October 2010.

Please note that the Competition Problems will be available in the course of August 2010.

We look forward to your applications and hope to welcome many of you in Paris in February 2011.

Sincerely yours,

The Organizing Committee
